Colorado Springs

Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival

Home | About Us | Festival Program | Ticket Info | Gallery | Sponsorship | Guestbook | Links | Contact Us | Join Our Mailing List

~~Congratulation To Our Very Own~~

Alma Cremonesi received the Thomas G. Martin Activist Award and Rhett Shockey (New England Financial ) received the NetCore Business of the Year Award at the 7th Annual Pikes Peak Gay & Lesbian Community Awards Ball.

---

Thanks for a great 2007 festival!

~~Mark Your Calendar~~

The 9th annual Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival is pleased to announce that we will be at Armstrong Hall on the Colorado College campus in Colorado Springs, September 19-21, 2008. Once again, we will be screening 9 shorts and 9 features from around the world. We will do our utmost to find the best films of the year. We will have our reception at Armstrong Opening Night and after parties every night. Passes and tickets go on sale in July 2008. We hope you will come and enjoy the excellent films, parties, and camaraderie.

Please visit us again or join our mailing list to get the latest updates.

News & Updates

05/08/08 - 6:30pm

Board Meeting Come and join us at the Gay & Lesbian Fund building on 315 East Costilla Street.

06/22/08

Denver Pride Festival More info coming soon.

07/20/08

Colorado Springs Pride Festival More info coming soon.

09/19/08 - 09/21/08

Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival More info coming soon.

Copyright © 2008 Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival